Resubmitting for Review

If the editor's decision is to resubmit for review, there is no need to start a new submission, the resubmission is done in the review stage, you just need to do the following things to resubmit once you have revised your document:

- 1- Upload the new file in the revisions section.
- 2- Add a discussion to notify the editor that you have re-submitted.

The peer review process will be repeated, and you will receive additional revisions to make. Then when these are completed and accepted, you will then be moved to the copyediting stage.

Editing Metadata

You may edit your own metadata at different stages of the editorial workflow. This will be dependent on settings granted by the Journal. You may either have global permission to make edits or must send a request to the Editor to do so.

Changes might include updated abstracts, correcting spelling errors, or adding additional contributors.

To make edits to your submitted manuscript, click on the publication tab of your submission.

You will be able to make changes to any of the sub-menus on the left by clicking to those tabs. If multiple languages are enabled for the journal, you will be able to edit metadata in those languages by clicking on the language tab in the top right. Click 'Save' once you're done making your changes.

You can review your submission on the Publication tab: Title & Abstract, Contributors, and Metadata. While Galleys is listed as an option on the side menu, you will not be able to upload or make changes in this section, but you can ask the Editor ask to make the changes for you.

Editing Profile:

To view and edit your profile, log in and click your Username link from the upper right corner. Choose the View Profile link.
